RISK WARNING, DISCLAIMER AND INDEMNITY FORM (The “Waiver”)

Inverloch Classic Wooden Dinghy Regatta (the “Regatta”) Waiver

- General: Sailing can be an inherently hazardous recreational activity and there is risk of injury, disability or death. If you do not wish to be exposed to such risks, then you should not participate in this Regatta.
- You acknowledge that the risks associated with attending or participating in the Regatta include but are NOT LIMITED to the risk that you may suffer harm as a result of:
 - boats (or parts of them) colliding with other boats or persons or property;
 - other participants acting dangerously or with lack of skills;
 - Any and all interaction with the public: remember we sail in a public place and all entrants must at all times ensure the safety of persons around boats.
- All entrants and other personnel partaking in the Regatta by signing this form, agree to enrol as temporary members of the South Gippsland Yacht Club (SGYC), if not already a member, and in doing so must comply with the terms of the Public Liability insurance SGYC has in place (a copy of which is available for review on request).
- All sailing entrants must either show their Australian Sailing (AS) membership, or have personal accident insurance, covering sailing as an activity, in place. Any entrant without said insurance agrees to enter the Regatta at their own risk. You agree that your own insurance arrangements are ultimately your own responsibility and you will arrange any additional coverage at your expense after taking into account SGYC and AS insurance arrangements, this document and your own circumstances.
- You acknowledge that any damage caused to your property, including your boat, is entirely at your risk. You agree to indemnify SGYC against any or all claims in respect of loss or damage to your boat and/or property travelling to/from and during the Regatta.
